Dr C.M. Singh– Brief Profile

Dr C.M. Singh was more of an Institution than an individual. People like him take birth in this world only once in a century. He was a dreamer and a man of action, always talked of “optimism in hopelessness” which he adapted as a principle of his life. He was the “God Father of Veterinary Profession”. Dr C.M. Singh was an eminent Veterinary Pathologist and Microbiologist and has made outstanding contributions in etio-pathogenesis and diagnosis of animal diseases mainly listeriosis, salmonellosis, mycoplasmosis, bovine lymphosarcoma and slow viral respiratory diseases. There is a need that youngsters should know about his life, contributions and achievements for advancement of veterinary profession. Dr C.M. Singh Endowment Trust, Bareilly (cmset.org) works with this mission and for welfare of veterinarians. The Trust organizes national conferences, memorial lectures, felicitates eminent veterinarians, institutes award for best veterinary science students, different competitions and publishes relevant literature. For details about objectives and activities of the Trust kindly visit Trust website cmset.org.

About ICAR-DFMD

The Directorate on Foot and Mouth Disease is the premier institute for FMD in the country, established as an All India Coordinated Research Project (AICRP) for FMD in 1968. During the last four decades of its existence the scope of the institute was expanded considerably and several milestones were achieved to reach the current status of Directorate. The Directorate has developed scientific expertise in conventional as well as in cutting edge areas, in the field of FMD diagnosis and epidemiology. It is also entrusted with the duty of providing the technical support and scientific information to the planners and strategy making agencies in developing the FMD control programmes currently undergoing in the country. The institute is recognized as “FAO reference center for FMD” by FAO of United Nations.
